RE: Gtech Corporation v. Scientific Games International, Inc., et al.
Civil Action No. 04-138 JJF

Dear Counsel:

After considering the evidence adduced for and at the Markman hearing and reviewing and considering the parties' arguments on summary judgment, I have determined that a "tentative" claim construction is appropriate in this case. By issuing a "tentative" claim construction order, the Court has the option of revising its interpretation of the disputed claim language after hearing further evidence at the trial.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH J. FARNAN, JR.
